Dear Billie

I hope you will excuse my not
answering your kind
letter sooner. But
as you will know
I cannot always sit
down to write

I am kept going
from early to late
and our busy time
is just on. it will keep us going now
untill the end of Sept I am sorry you took
so much trouble about
the Fruit Salesmen
I quite understand
that it would not
be worth their while
to accept an order
for say a cupful of baskets or so a
week.

we are very much
handicapt here -
being 15 miles from
a station - I hope
all is going well
with you at home
let me have a line
when the next comes of - You do not seem to know that Charlie lost his wife about 2 years
ago. He has retired from the locality
built himself a home

Life but Pleasant
 and I love the Dear Old Patterdale. I want
 a great deal in winter
 So if you should care to come up at Xmas I could give you a day or two I shall one of your big school bus chunter & his family for 3 weeks in August:
 the Head of the Firm of Duncan Fox & Co.
 Do you care: or rather
 do you know any one
 in the Fruit Trade
 I am a peddler in the Season if you do drop me in line

Dear Billie
 I was very pleased
 to hear you were still in the land of the living. It was quite a surprise to me when Pearson

asked if I knew you
 I am glad to hear you
 are getting along alright and quite happy. I should like to see you very much. I cannot invite you during our busy season but if about some time
 you and Mrs. Duckburg
 would care to come
 up to our part of
 the world we
 we would be very glad to see you
 both during the season

we have not a
 minute to call our own
 Have you any family
 you would not know
 mine now. He is 12 weeks old, Alice is a very big girl or I should say a young woman
 So is Mary. one
 boy Sam, a picket. I am glad to say we all keep
 well, and strong
 it is a very hard

1
Dear Billie
Your kind letter
of hand which contained such good news I am
glad the first girl

you will find her
a comfort that is
if you have made
up your minds to go on with this business
you will find it
rather expensive
in more ways than
one. But if they are
sound in limb
and eyesight be surprised if
and grow a comfort
to you both

that is everything
Mrs Sends her love
to your wife
and please to tell
her that she was pleased to hear
she had got over
nicely her great trouble. He hope
to be surprised if I should drop
to you both
